

This kind of registry affects my ability to pay my bills. It also may affect my future employment by removing other job opportunities in the field. It also may affect my chances for advancement and the survival of the company as a whole.